City of Falls Church Farmer's Market – A 20-Year Tradition

FALLS CHURCH, VA. – Located just minutes from Washington, D.C. and Metro accessible from the East and West Falls Church Metro stations, Falls Church City's Farmer's Market has something for all. Opening Saturday, May 1, 2004 and running through November 20, 2004, the Farmer's Market is located at 300 Park Avenue in the City Hall parking lot. The market is held every Saturday from 8 am to 12 Noon in historic Falls Church, right next door to its Cherry Hill Farm, a Greek Revival farmhouse in existence in the City since 1845. Fresh locally grown fruits and vegetables are sold at the market. In addition, cheeses, meats, baked goods and plants are for sale. The Fairfax County Master Gardeners also staff a booth at the market to answer gardening questions. Ample parking is available or take the City's local transit system GEORGE from the East or West Falls Church Metro station and get off at Park Avenue. For more information, please contact Recreation & Parks at 703-248-5077 or via e-mail at recreation@ci.falls-church.va.us.
